Rutherford, N. J., March 2nd, 1897.

DEAR SIR: --

I take great pleasure to hand you enclosed Mr. Georg Egger's Price-List of Syrian Flower Bulbs for 1897.

Mr. Egger is the principal grower and supplier of these kinds of bulbs for the entire market, and he is able "second to none" to supply A1 stock only.

I beg to call your special attention to his Alliums, Arums, Cyclamens, Iris, Tulipas, etc., which are grown by the largest quantities in his establishment. Amongst the Iris specially are so very many splendid varieties that not even Orchids could rival with them in beauty, and as they are so easy to bloom, will give greatest satisfaction to customers.

Should you be able to use some of these bulbs for your fall trade, kindly let me have your order not later than April 15th, that we may have ample time to prepare same carefully.

Your correspondence on these articles is kindly solicited.

Respectfully yours,

J. L. SCHILLER.
